Title: The Greenskin Menace

Author: Humanity's Voice

Why?

Why do we tolerate the beasts?

Why do we allow them to breed and prosper knowing the evil they are? The evil they were bred for? The evil that created them?

((Drawing of a savage orcish raider))

How?

How do they prosper?

How do they stand against the forces of virtue? How do they attack the fair city of Moonglow, our city, the city of knowledge and fear no reprisals?

((Picture of an orcish raiding party on Moonglow))

We are MEN. Born with the strength of our pure HUMAN blood. Why do these beasts attack us?

They fear us. They fear our purity. Our intelligence. Our birthright, that is the world.

They are beasts. They should be destroyed.

((Picture of orcs being burnt at the stake))

The undead of Umbra and the man-beasts of Stonegate honor these beasts, make treaties and break bread with them. They treat them as honored friends and allies rather than the beasts and foul agents of evil that they are.

((Picture of an orcish leader at a table with Darrien Church sitting at one side and Myrddin, son of Ceinwyn sitting at the other side all toasting each other))

Now is the time!

Now is the time to stand up for HUMANITY!

The Orcs must be destroyed, and all who stand with them deserve the same fate.

((Picture of same orc, with Darrien and Myrddin all crucified together))

One Race, One Destiny

You are a HUMAN. The blood of the righteous runs through your veins as it ran in the veins of of your father and their fathers before them. Your lands are occupied by inferior races. Now is the time to rise and reclaim what is yours by right of blood an Embrace the Humanis path and walk with the righteous hatred for our racial enemies.
